From the Pen of the Pastor...

Dear sisters and brothers,

Thank you to all of you that helped me to celebrate my birthday. Thank you to the Altar Society, the Mother Teresa Group, and the Knights of Columbus for their gifts, and for the cake. Your love and care are a great blessing to me. Thank you.

And thank you to all you mothers! Thank you for the gift of life you gave us. Thank you for the countless (and almost always unacknowledged) ways you have cared for us from the moment of our conception and throughout our lives. I am grateful to have had a wonderful and loving mother, a wise, caring and wonderful step-mother (they get a bad rap in Disney movies, but not all step-mothers are bad!), and the grace to know that Mary, the mother of God, is my mother too. Even for those of us who did not have the best of mothers, it is good that we thank them for giving us life, and in honoring them, God promises that he will bless us. Don't forget to reach out to your mother and doing something loving for her. Thank you, moms!

Please continue to join me in praying for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our lives, our families, our parish, our country and our world as we draw near to Pentecost next Sunday.

Come, Holy Spirit.

Fill the heart of your faithful

And kindle in them the fire of Your love.

Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created.

And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit

Did instruct the hearts of the faithful,

Grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be

Truly wise and ever enjoy in His consolations.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Excerpts from Pope Francis' Exhortation "Rejoice and Be Glad" (Gaudete et Exsultate) We continue to offer quotes from the Pope's most recent Apostolic Exhortation, which he wrote to remind us that we are all called to holiness and to help us reach that holiness without which none of us can be happy or in heaven.

This holiness to which the Lord calls you will grow through small gestures. Here is an example: a woman goes shopping, she meets a neighbour and they begin to speak, and the gossip starts. But she says in her heart: "No, I will not speak badly of anyone". This is a step forward in holiness. Later, at home, one of her children wants to talk to her about his hopes and dreams, and even though she is tired, she sits down and listens with patience and love. That is another sacrifice that brings holiness. Later she experiences some anxiety, but recalling the love of the Virgin Mary, she takes her rosary and prays with faith. Yet another path of holiness. Later still, she goes out onto the street, encounters a poor person and stops to say a kind word to him. One more step.

Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord Prayer...

...Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever.
